

October 7th Meeting Topic: "Corps of Engineers in Huntsville – An Overview of the Center and its Mission"

October's speaker will be Lieutenant Colonel Jay P. Brown. LTC Brown began his assignment as Deputy Commander of the U.S. Army Engineering and Support Center, Huntsville, Alabama, on June 12, 2002. Prior to coming to the Huntsville Center, LTC Brown served in a wide variety of military and engineering roles, including Chief of the Kirtland Engineering Services at Kirtland Air Force Base, Project Engineer in the Omaha District Rocky Mountain Area Office in Denver, and as an Area Commander for the Colombia project office supporting counter-drug operations in Colombia and Venezuela. He holds a BS from the USMA in weapon systems engineering, a MS in Civil/Structural Engineering from Colorado State, and is currently pursuing a PhD from the Univ. of New Mexico in Structural Engineering. Don't miss this meeting and a chance to hear about the wide ranging projects managed out of the Huntsville Center!

* REMINDER * - UAH students will be attending, so be sure to bring your business cards!

Cost of the luncheon will vary, ordering directly from Green Hills Grille menu. Please email in your reservation to Gary Gleason at gary.gleason@amec.com or call 716-0083 by noon Friday, June October 3rd.

ASCE HUNTSVILLE BRANCH 2003-2004 OFFICERS ELECTED

Officer elections were held at the July regular business meeting of the Branch. The results and the new officers for 2004 are as follows:

President: Larry Donelson
Vice President: Christi Robinson
Secretary: Bill Kennard
Treasurer: Gary Gleason

Due to the anticipated absence at the October meeting of some of the officers due to Fall Break, officers will be installed at the November meeting.
