

Engineering Specialist 3 - This position is located in Okeechobee and is responsible for ensuring compliance of the technical engineering aspects of Environmental Resource Permits (ERP) and/or Surface Water Management (SWM) permits from construction commencement through construction completion certification.

Duties include resolution of non-compliance issues either during construction or at time of construction completion certification, successful resolution of public inquiries from the regulated community for both permitted and un-permitted projects and involvement with special assignments and enforcement cases.

Employment Guidelines: Bachelor of Science degree from an ABET/EAC accredited program in Civil, Environmental, or related engineering field and 2+ years qualifying experience in water resource engineering.

Job Reference 2564BR

The SFWMD offers a competitive salary and a comprehensive benefits package that includes health benefits, paid vacation and sick time, and is part of the Florida Retirement System. For more information about our organization, this opportunity, and to apply online, please visit www.sfwmd.gov.