

DECEMBER 2024 MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

This month we will be hearing from:

Jay Bayam and Matt Gutacker

Title:

The Power of Reality Capture

Jay Bayam is the founder and CEO of Kartorium, a digital twin software company based in Anchorage. Matt Gutacker is the Managing Principle of Alaska Remote Imaging (ARI). Alaska Remote Imaging provides digital twin capture, integration, drafting and surveying services.

In this joint discussion, Alaska Remote Imaging (ARI) will showcase their cutting-edge reality capture capabilities and highlight their value for engineering firms in enhancing project accuracy and efficiency. Kartorium will explore how these deliverables can be integrated into digital twins, providing powerful tools for work planning, ongoing maintenance, and long-term asset management.
