2023 SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

Re: 2023 Scholarship Application
American Society of Civil Engineers - Palm Beach County Branch

Enclosed is a copy of the criteria for the above-referenced 2023 Scholarship Program. We are offering up to three (3) $1,000 scholarships for the academic year of 2023-2024. The intent is to award each scholarship to a graduating high school senior or a college undergraduate civil engineering student.

To highlight the main criteria for the scholarship, the student must be a resident of, attended high school in or currently attend an ABET-accredited university in Palm Beach County, Florida, and must be registered or will be the following semester (either summer or fall) as a full-time student majoring in Civil Engineering or related engineering field. The attached scholarship application package describes the eligibility requirements in detail. Please note that applications are due by March 31, 2023. The Palm Beach Branch will host an in-person awards “social” in Palm Beach County (date and location TBD).

Should you have any questions or require additional information, or need additional application packages, please do not hesitate to contact me:
